The gorgeous Sarah and her Beau married at Dodford Church followed by a reception at Dodford Manor and chose a classic combination of White Hydrangeas and Blush Roses. Crystals were also incorporated into the bouquet for a little touch of sparkle, and submersible lights used inside the vases on the table centres. Behind the top table were small hanging globes of Pink and White Hydrangeas which added interest to the otherwise plain cream wall. Gypsophila, Orchids, Prunus and foliage were the used to create the Segregation garlands at Kelham Hall for a wedding. The garlands lined a walkway down the centre of the room to the top table on the stage area. Tables were various set ups of Cylinder vases on mirror plates, some with submerged flowers and some with willow inside, all with floating candles on the top. The cake table and top table were decorated with two large glass vases of Hydrangea and Roses and Orchids. Vase and Decoration Hire – Nerissa Eve Weddings

The church was decorated serenely in whites and greens with Pew ends, hanging column arrangements, Window displays and pedestals. Blues whites and greens were used in the marquee to inject some colour against an otherwise blank background. Tall vases and candelabra have small arrangements nestled beneath with candle and votives on the tables. Elaborate chair swags were made for the bride and grooms chairs.
